1910.

OUR AIM FOR TWENTY-FIVE YEARS HAS BEEN :

1. To welcome to our midst a large body of seamen, of divers nationalities, who yearly bring into the Port of Montreal trade and settlers to the country; and to afford them, while with us, a bright and homelike resort under uplifting influences.

2. To encourage the sailors while on shore to be self-respecting, to observe law and order, to save their money and avoid the temptations of a great city; and in particular to advocate temperance.

3. To attain this aim, we would have the seaman make use of our rooms as his headquarters, free of charge, so that when released from the duties of his ship, they shall be his home, his club to meet his friends from other ships, his library, his reading and writing rooms, his post office and savings bank and his place of entertainment and recreation, in the form of games, lectures and concerts, etc.

4. While all seamen of every nationality and creed are welcome to use the benefits of the Club, we especially encourage the Catholic seaman to attend to the duties of his religion, providing him with his own oratory and his own chaplain.

5. Finally, to visit the sick and injured seamen when in hospital and to bury the dead honorably in the Club's portion of the Cemetery at Côte des Neiges.

OUR NEEDS.

Your charitable sympathy and personal service in our cause, your visits to our rooms and your presence at our weekly concerts; good literature, illustrated papers and magazines for the reading rooms and to be made into bundles to be taken to the ships on the eve of sailing; clothing, especially boots and trousers; games and articles of furniture for the reading and recreation rooms; old carpets to be cut up into hand protectors for the firemen; "ditty" bags containing sewing necessities, etc., for Jack aboard; an increase of members and subscribers to carry on the good work, to pay our debts and to make necessary improvements. Remembrance on your charity list and in your will. A new building is necessary.
